

Welcome to the magical world of English language

About us:

What started with just 13 students, today boasts of an impressive alumnus of over 15,000+ students. Founded in 2003, by Dipti Kenia, who was extremely passionate about the language, aims to teach the language with a difference. We focus on helping our students read English, improve their spellings, vocabulary, grammar, creative writing, conversation skills, and overall language skills, developing the student's overall personality, and setting a strong foundation for a bright & enriched future.

We teach English as a Language not as a Subject!

To build 'Centres of Excellence' in creating champions in English Language through innovative and customized methods of highest quality to impact a whole new generation in becoming excellent communicators by nurturing and igniting one's creativity, thereby shaping up one's attitude, confidence and personality.

Meet the Founder

Sachmaas has been a forerunner in Phonics, English Grammar and Creative Writing since 18 years. Outstanding Quality in teaching with fabulously trained teachers coupled with our unique customized curriculum and teaching methodologies is our forte. I am passionate about giving our best to the students and have equally exemplary teachers who possess the same finesse and zeal. Our aim is to lead each one of our students to reach the highest standards of the English Language. Recently, we began emphasizing on improving their vocabulary effectively, which led to the stupendous results in their school and various competitions. Their Creative thinking and Creative Writing have improved in leaps and bounds.

Last but not the least, I must say that English is the language that a person needs to be proficient in to outshine in whichever field one chooses in his/her career. By the end of their journey at Sachmaas, our students are well-armed to become excellent communicators, powerful orators, voracious readers, and impeccable writers! They are bound to excel and make a mark in any field chosen equipped with powerful vocabulary and confidence!
